

Total payroll employment on Guam declined by 1,230 jobs in the latest quarter and by 1,120 in the latest one-year period. Most of the job reductions in the latest quarter were due to the temporary Typhoon Chata'an Disaster Recovery employment program nearing completion. The temporary employment program for Typhoon Pongsona had not yet started as of the March survey period. The job cuts over the year were due primarily to reductions in the Hotel and Other Services categories.
